

CHANGING THE NARRATIVE Upcoming Workshops

Do you work with, advocate for or communicate about older adults, aging and ageism? Are you a policy-maker who cares about older adults and wants to advance age-friendly communities? Are you someone who cares about addressing ageism?

If so, these workshops are for you. JOIN US to learn evidence-based communications strategies that have been proven to shift public opinion in a positive direction, to increase support for age-friendly policies and to decrease bias against older people.
